Mr. Woolf,

On behalf of First American Title Insurance Company, I am in receipt of and have accepted service of the Court's Order dated June 1 and the Report and Recommendation dated June 2.

Prior to receiving your email from this morning, a check in the amount of $975,300.00 was deposited with the Clerk of the Court.

Good morning Mr. Sager,

Attached please find a minute order from the Court directing the Government to serve First American Title with the order directing deposit of $975,300 with the Clerk of Court. Per our telephonic discussion last Friday, it is my understanding that First American Title has a copy of the order and will be depositing the amount ordered from the escrow account with the Clerk of Court. Nevertheless, an additional copy of the order and supporting report and recommendation from the magistrate judge are attached. It is respectfully requested that First American Title accept service of the order and report and recommendation via this email. If it is unwilling to do so, please advise where and to whom service should be directed to ensure the documents get to you in a timely manner.

Kind Regards,

-MW
